

Advanced Researchers' Day

Wednesday, 23 September 2015

SNSF Administrative Offices, Wildhainweg 21, Berne

12:45 – 13:15 In front of the Plenary hall 21

Arrival and coffee

13:15 – 13:45 Plenary hall 21

This is how we can support your research

Angelika Kalt, Deputy Director of the SNSF

13:45 – 14:30 Plenary hall 21

The career funding schemes

Antonio Currao, Careers division of the SNSF

14:30 – 15:00 In front of the Plenary hall 21

Break

15:00 – 16:00

How to submit an application

Both project funding and career funding proposals will be discussed

_Humanities and social sciences Plenary hall 21

_Mathematics, natural and engineering sciences Room 56

_Biology and medicine Plenary hall 20, Wildhainweg 20

16:00 – 17:00 Reception hall, Wildhainweg 3

Information stands

Representatives of the different SNSF funding schemes will advise you personally.

17:30 – 18:30 Plenary hall 21

Presentation of the Marie Heim-Vögtlin Prize 2015

How can the SNSF support your research?

The Swiss National Science Foundation (SNSF) invites advanced researchers (as of postdoc level) from the whole of Switzerland to its offices in Berne so that it may inform them about the various research funding schemes and offer them personalised advice.

The presentations will be in English. Participants can ask questions in French too (afternoon session).

Online registration is a must (limited attendance):

www.snsf.ch/events