Evaluation procedure and timeline

Evaluation criteria

Evaluation criteria*

Applicant

- Scientific research output to date (quality), relative to the net academic age
- Ability, based on achievements to date, to conduct the project and contribute to it personally
- Career development and mobility (past and future)

Project

- Scientific relevance, quality, originality and topicality
- Suitability of approach, methodology and feasibility

Host institution

- Scientific support, suitability and added value regarding the proposed project
- Suitability to ensure and promote the applicant's independence, intellectual development and continuing education
- For RG: value added to a scientific/academic career in CH

Host institutions abroad

Evaluation criteria

- Scientific support, suitability and added value regarding the proposed project
- Suitability to ensure and promote the applicant's independence, intellectual development and continuing education

Clarify as early as possible whether a stay at the host institution is subject to any conditions, e.g.:

- Overhead -> the SNSF does not pay overhead or bench fees.
- Minimum salary requirements (for example at US institutions) -> SNSF fellowship rates are binding, any gap should be covered by the host institution -> clarify questions regarding funding etc. early enough.
- Status of visiting researchers (for example in France, where fellowship holders usually must be employed after a certain period).
- Research in crisis area: The SNSF assesses the feasibility of research proposals during the scientific evaluation process. Risk analyses presented in the research plan are also examined. These may present alternative options, for example how the research could be carried out without travelling to countries with a significant security risk or whether it could be carried out entirely in another country.

If you are successful...

FAQ

FAQ

Can I apply for Postdoc.Mobility if I have already submitted an Ambizione or SNSF Starting Grant application?

If you have submitted an application for Ambizione or the SNSF StG which is under evaluation, you cannot submit an application for a Postdoc.Mobility fellowship for the same funding period

Does the PhD count for the two years of research of activity in Switzerland for foreigner with a Swiss permit?

Yes, if you were/are doing your PhD at a Swiss institution (place of work is relevant).

Are exceptions possible regarding the minimum two-year Swiss link?

No. The minimum two-year Swiss link must be fulfilled on 5 August 2025.

Do you consider the oral exam, final draft submission or public defense as date for the PhD?

The date of the examination or respectively the date of the defence of the doctoral thesis is the relevant date (the public defence is, with few exceptions, held on a different day than the exam and is therefore not relevant here).

FAQ

Can I apply to go to more than one host institution?

Yes, this is possible. You must submit a confirmation letter from each host institution (for stays as of 1 month) and a support letter from each mentor (for stays as of 6 months).

Can a dual national apply to go to one of their home country, where they have never lived, studied...?

Yes, but a request for exemption has to be uploaded in the application.

Is it possible for the host institution to top up the stipend?

Yes, if there is a minimal amount demanded at the host institute. The SNSF does not top up the stipends.

FAQ

I am planning a research stay in the United States. What should I do if I am unsure whether I will have access to my host institution or the resources provided by the host institution, e.g. local funding to meet a minimum requirement or insurance coverage?

Contact your host institution and relevant authorities as soon as possible for necessary information and stay updated on any developments that may affect you. If your Postdoc.Mobility application is approved but your planned stay at the host institution is no longer possible, you may arrange to carry out your project elsewhere. Important: Any changes to the research project (incl. host) or the conditions for conducting it must be submitted to the SNSF in advance for approval.

Will my Postdoc.Mobility fellowship be taxed in Switzerland?

Generally, all cantons consider the fellowships to be taxable income in the year of approval or in the year of payment. If you have any questions, please contact the relevant tax office directly.
